Student Rights and responsibilities: You, as a student, have a fundamental right to a free public education. You also have a responsibility to live by the rules and to have equal protection under the rules in school, as in the larger society. It is your responsibility to obey school regulations and the school authorities that enforce them. This responsibility extends to your conduct to and from school, as well as in the school building itself.

Affirmative Action Assurance: No student at Delran Intermediate School shall be subjected to discrimination within any educational program or activity on the basis of sex, race, color, creed, religion, ancestry, national origin or socio-economic status. Affirmative action concerns should be addressed to: Mrs. Rachel Medina.

Parent Assurance of the Behavioral Code

This certificate assures the Delran Intermediate School Administration that I have read and discussed, with my child, the school's expectations for student behavior while in school and at school functions, as outlined in the student agenda. It is understood that student behavior should support student learning, and all students are responsible for doing their part to maintain a peaceful and congenial atmosphere in the school.

I also understand that behavioral infractions, disruptions to the school day, or harm to others will result in disciplinary consequences. The consequences will be in line with the misdeed and are designed to teach students to positively interact and enthusiastically exhibit more responsible conduct and behavior.

I am aware that my child's participation in trips and extracurricular activities is dependent upon satisfactory attendance and positive behavior. I am also aware that promotion to the next grade is dependent upon satisfactory attendance and academic performance.

I know that I can monitor my child's attendance and grades on the Parent Portal, which is accessible through the delranschools.com website.
